

Eventing Ireland is delighted to announce a full day's infotainment on Saturday 9 February 2019 at Spruce Lodge, County Wicklow

Open to all, the format for the day will be as follows:

Time	Programme	Location
10.00am	Registration	Conference Room
10.30am – 12.00pm	Competing with the Mind Kate Kirby and members of WEG Squad	Conference Room
12.00pm – 1.30pm	Eventing Ireland AGM and Presentations*	Conference Room
1.30pm – 2.30pm	Soup/Sandwich Lunch (included for Full Day ticket holders)	Jack Whites Pub (5 mins from venue J19 on M11)
2.30pm – 5.30pm	Training the Connection: Show Jumping and Cross Country Demo High Performance Trainers Ian Fearon (SJ) and Sally Corscadden (XC) Featuring High Performance Athletes from all squads	Indoor School

Kate Kirby is the Lead Sport Psychologist at the Institute of Sport and has worked with a multitude of sports including Pentathlon and Boxing as well as Eventers.

Tickets to the Panel Session and SJ/XC Demo can only be purchased online via the Eventing Ireland website HERE - please remember you MUST BE LOGGED IN TO PURCHASE!! (Web membership is free, just click on 'Create EI Account' and fill in your details) Please print out your receipt and bring it with you. Online tickets sales will close on Friday at noon.

Ticket prices are as follows:

Full Day (Panel Session and Demo – lunch included) €50

Half Day (Demo only from 2.30pm) €30

* Those wishing to attend the Eventing Ireland AGM only are very welcome - this is free but you will be asked to register on arrival.

All profits will go toward the High Performance Training Fund

* Please note, this will also be a CPD day for Coaches ****